

Corporate Engagement Opportunities

Opportunity	Description	Cost	Timeline
Brown Bag Lunch Series	An opportunity for diverse professionals (i.e. finance, law, medicine, engineering, IT, social services, education, etc.) to participate in 1-hour quarterly Brown Bag Luncheons to expose LINK scholars to a variety of career industries and increase their knowledge of skills, education, and training required to enter into and succeed in various professions.	N/A	Saturdays: 2/27/16; 4/23/16
Career Day/Fair	An opportunity for professionals and employers to showcase their businesses for scholars to learn about their field and any job/internship opportunities.	N/A	Saturday, February 6, 2016
Collegiate Scholar Mentoring	An opportunity to mentor LINK scholars who are pursuing undergraduate studies.	N/A	Year round effective September
Event Sponsorships	An opportunity to support annual fundraisers (Private Equity Luncheon, DreamKeepers Gala, Golf Outing,)	$5K- $100K	Varies
Corporation Tours	An opportunity to provide tours for LINK scholars to learn more about respective businesses and see the day to day operations	$500	Summer or Spring Break
Job Shadowing	An opportunity to provide work experience option where LINK scholars learn about a job by walking through the work day as a shadow to an employee	N/A	Varies
Internships	An opportunity to provide a job (paid or unpaid) to LINK scholars to gain work experience in a respective field of interest	Varies	Summer Break
Mentoring	An opportunity to support a LINK scholar through one-on-one mentoring for throughout their four (4) high school years.	$3K- $10K	October – June

LINK Unlimited Scholar's mission is to provide educational college preparatory opportunities for economically disadvantaged African American high school youth. We integrate mentoring relationships, service initiatives and spiritual principles to foster academic success, personal development and interracial understanding and harmony.